Cuban Affairs—The Captain General Issues an Address—Rejoicing over the Capture of the Virginius—A

HAVANA, Nov. 7.—Captain General Jouvellar to-day issued an official address. He says there is nothing of and pressing interest to the public good and the prestige and honor of a nation as the restoration of the normal state of affairs in the Island of Cuba. He proposes to subject everything to this elevated consideration within the limits of the laws. The social question; and the exigencies at the present epoch will be the object of the special mediation and conscientious study, Notwithstanding war has been initiated, it will seek to determine upon the best plan for changing the condition of laborers, keeping in view the agricultural interests and right of property, the maintenance of productive industry and the general good of the country. He lays down as a basis of his policy the principle that the mission of all good governments is to protect, con-sequently the fears that inconsiderate resolutions and extreme measures will be adopted and ought to cease. Confidence must be renewed, for without it, the re-establishment of the public credit would be impossible. The address concludes, "all may rest assured that I will comply with the instructions of the National Government, to be untiring in my efforts to procure peace, encourage credit and pursue fraud, taking care that none of the great interests of the Island shall suffer while I act as your Governor.

The public rejoicings last night over the capture of the steamer Virginius were most enthusiastic. The Governor's palace and public buildings, and many private houses were illuminated. A torch-light procession passed through the principal streets, which were thickly hung with flags and tapestry. Serenades were given to the Captain-General and General of the Marine. There will be a grand parade to-night of all the batallions of volunteers.

KNOXVILOE, Nov. 7.-The Railroad bock continues. The attempt of the Company to send out freight trains from the city this morning failed, owing to the engineer being prevented by force from taking the engine out of the round house. The Company sued one hundred strikers in the Circuit Court for five hundred thousand dollars damages, and the Sheriff served the notices this evening They also sued one hundred in the Chancery Court, and obtained an order to restrain the men from abstructing the business of the Company, which notice was served by the Sheriff. The Company will attempt to start freight trains to Bristol and Chattancoga to-morrow morning. The Directors adopted the following to-day:

Whereas, The rights and interests of stockholders of the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia Railroad Company is sacredly regarded and protected by law as the right of private individuals; and, whereas, said Company has uniformily and scrupulously respected and observed its obligations to employees by prompt and full payment of their wages; and, whereas, numerous flagrant and outrageous violations of the law and rights of stockholders have been committed by persons lately employed in said Company, by threats and intimidation, and employed to deter those who are ready and willing to engage in its service, as well as by forcible seizure and arrest of trains, thus inflicting irreparable damage on the interest of the road; therefore, Resolved, That under solemn sense

The official intelligence received here shows that the Virginius was captured six miles from the coast of Jamaica. At the instance of Minister Sickles, instructions were sent from the Government of Madrid, to await orders from the Home Government before inflicting penalties on the passengers and crew of the Virginius. This order was probably received on the evening of the 5th, or the morning of the 6th inst., too late, as it appears from the dispatches received to-day from Cuba, to be respected.

President Thompson submitted a letter from Vice President Scott, stating that if it was deemed desirable, in consequence of his connection with the Pacific Construction Co., his resignation as first Vice President would be submitted, on which the Board unanimously resolved that it was not desirable that there should be any change in Scott's relations with the Company.

TRE EVIL TENDENCY OF GIFT CONCERTS.—The following communication on the evil tendency of Gift

Concerts and their pernicious in-fluence on the young, is from the pen of one whose sound judgment and well matured opinions are above bias or prejudice, and as such is worthy or especial consideration: MESSRS. EDITORS:—I hope I do not trespass upon the rights of any honest man, when I say that the citizens of our city and State are regularly training the rising generation and their own precious offspring in a love of gambling, when they sauc-tion and subscribe to Gift Concerts. What is to become of our country already overrun with gamblers, de-frauders and infidels, when christian and respectable people generally adopt such scandalous modes of obtaining money for the support of otherwise laudable enterprises? In many instances professing christians obtain money to build and ornament their churches, and even pay their Missionaries, by raffling and other games of chance; and so are guilty of "doing evil that good may come"—Romans III, 8. And the Apostle adds, "whose condemnation is just."

This is becoming a very serious matter, Messrs Editors, when our anciently honorable old North State (whose motto was honesty-known as honest old North Carolina) will have to lower her proud head before the nations of the earth.

And are not those christians who employ such culpable modes of obtaining money responsible in a high degree for this reckless disregard of scripture, and the upright principles of their children, thus sacrificed to the spirit of unjust gain?

Thirty years ago, when the writer of this article came to this city, none of these things were done, to compromise the character of North Car-olinians. But sad to say, through the carelessness, or neglect of parents, the generation grown up since that time have succombed to the customs and practices of foreigners, and thus degraded the time-honored principles of their once grand old State.

Suppose you not, loving and anxious parents, that when you purchase a ticket in a lottery, your sons will not think it right and desire to do likewise? Especially when they hear of boys who have taken tickets and drawn prizes-a splendid horse for esteemed correspondent, commenting upon the action of the managers of the State Fair in proposing to have another gift concert at the next annual exhibition, was not published, from the fact that the statement in the paper spoken of by our correspondent to that effect is totally unfounded, and it would be injustice in us towards the officers of the Society to give circulation to a rumor detrimental to their interests, when we know it to be false. Such a proposition has not been made at any of the meetings of the Executive Committee since the ample. late Fair, and we happen to know that it is the positive determination would not recommend the application of many doses of fashion to the ladies under the present stringency of the money market: "The two prominent styles of basques are equally becoming, equal-ly elegant. The Catharine de Medici, ly elegant. The Catharine de Medici, if made of velvet, has a silken collar, curving out like the lip of a sea shell, inside a ruff of silk. This is double-breasted; the sleeves are of silk, exceedingly stiff, with plaitings at the wrist and elbows. The Henry Trois, fitting exquisitely to the shape the pockets large, fastened with three is also double-breasted, high at the throat. The buttons are small, and throat. The buttons are small, and embroidered according to the latest style, by hand. There are little pockets on the outside, simply piped to correspond with the edge of the basque. An exceedingly elegant basque, in yet another style, the Directoire, this having the masculing receive connected to the reff and decrease connected to the reff. revers connected to the ruff, and descending from that a deep square col-lar, something in the fashion of children's sailor collars. The sleeves close fitting, have very stiff up-turn-ed cuffs. All of the very newest basques are double-breasted, very long, and made straight around over the hips with a graceful spring. A simple basque made of less costly materials, is double-breasted and trimmed with two rows of buttons, with high standing Medici fraise. Another style has little pockets and revers. A peculiarity of the new baskes is, that however elabor-ate the trimming of the skirt, the baskes, with the exception of the buttons and ruff, are entirely untrim-med; if of velvet, the edges have a double piping of silk, and the cuffs, sleeves, ruff and revers are of silk. A very handsome jacket, close-fitting, has double baskes, the under ones pointed as the tails of a man's coat, the upper simulating Louis XIII. buttons. The basque is platted in the middle, disclosing a lining made of some delicately tinted silk; there is a pointed berthe, and the sleeves are flowing from the elbow, richly trimmed to correspond with the berthe and under-basque, with ecru braid and lace. Still another jacket, exceedingly stylish, represents in front a Louis XIV. vest, ornate, with braiding in silken cord corresponding to the color of the material; long basques form the side pieces, with deep pockets in front, while behind the basques are shorter, with trimmed revers and buttons, the fraise being of the same material as the jacket, which is elaborately braided on the sleeves, back and shoulders in a large A recently imported dinner toilette had the under-skirt trimmed with two very deep sideplaited fi unces; the overskirt formed a tablier in front, draped into a large panier puff behind. This was all bordered with a revers in silk quilted in fine diamonds, with a scart quilted to match, caught up in the back, descending in long ends pointed and completed with a large tassel; the vest and jacket with deep cuffs and revers had the same quilted trimming.

Wake Forest College, as the presiding officer. The attendance on Thursday, considering the stringency of the times, was very good. The principal business before the Convention on Thursday was the reception of the report of the Committee on Education, which was adopted and discussed at considerable length. Some capital speeches were by Rev. N. B. Cobb and others. Thursday night a mass meeting in the interest of Domestic or State Missions was held, which was conducted by. Dr. T. H. Pritchard, the President of the Board. Able and eloquent speeches were made by Rev. C. Durham, Rev. Mr. Owen, of Portsmouth and Rev. Dr. Pritchard. The collection for this purpose was a DESTRUCTIVE FIRE AT LOCK-VILLE.-The cotton gin and stables of Capt. Isaac Newton Clegg, of Lockville, were destroyed by fire on Thursday evening. The fire originated in the lint rooms of the gin, but how, it is not known. Several bales of cotton, a quantity of loose cotton, and about two hundred bushels of wheat were in the gin, noneof which was saved. There was no insurance on the property and Capt. Clegg, a hard working, industrious, good man, who has been for years struggling against the adverse winds of financial embarrassment, suffers the loss of nearly $4,000. For the past seven years Capt. C. kept this property insured for $4,000, but like many others of our honest, good old farmers in the country, thought it was paying out money every year for nothing, and several months ago allowed his policy to expire without renewing. We deeply sympathize with our old friend in his sad calamity and sincerily hope that through his youthful manhood and vigor he will soon "work out" the loss he has sustained.

A COMMENDABLE ACT.-Dr. Jas. W. Alston, of this city, has offered his professional services to the Young Men's Christian Association to attend the poor sick under their supervision, free of charge. This act is highly commendable in Dr. Alston, and we would be glad to see others emulating his worthy ex-NAME OMITTED .- In the publicaOne square, six months..... THE CONCERT LAST NIGHT .- The inclement weather seriously inter-fered with the turnout last evening to hear the first concert of the Sextette Club, and only a fair audience greeted Club, and only a fair audience greeted the excellent performance. As far as we are able to judge, the music was a decided success, especially the the closing piece, the "anvil chorous," which, with most of the other pieces, received a merited encore. The "American Medley," a piano solo, by Prof. Von Meyerhoff, was somewhat in the range of our latitude, especially the Dixey part, and we unhesitatingly say it was superb. The vocal solo of Miss Ada Slater was charming, as also the duett of Mrs. and Miss Slater, so the duett of Mrs. and Miss and the various instrumental pieces of the Sextettte were admirably performed. Here our criticism must end, for there was just as much music in the beating of a tin pan as we discovered in those German-named piano duetts, which in all probability were the principal features of the evening to cultivated musical ears. We sincerely hope that in consideration of the unpropitious weather, the Club may be prevailed upon to repeat at an early day the performance of last evening. NORTH CAROLINA AT THE GEOR-GIA STATE FAIR.-From the Macon Daily Telegraph and Messenger we clip the following complimentary notice of the exhibition of the paintings and crayons by the pupils of Peace Institute, of this city:

"There is in this same department a large number of paintings and cray-ons, exhibited by Prof. Stephens, as the work of the pupils of Peace Insti-tute, Raleigh, N. C. There are many good paintings in the collection, but the crayons are especially good. Prof. Stephens has come a long way with this contribution to the State Fair, and we hope the people will evince a due appreciation of it.

RETURNED .- A. C. Murrow, the messenger sent to Indiana, with a requisition for Peter Staley, who stands harged with the homicide of Henry Clapp in Guilford county last spring, has returned with his prisoner. He is now confined in the jail of Guilford county, and will be tried at the Spe-cial Term of the Superior Court for that county on the 1st Monday of December. The son of Staley who was charged as an accomplice of his father, and who fled with him to Indiana, died of cholera the past summer in

MUST THE HUSBAND PAY ALL HIS WIFE'S BILLS?—The Supreme Court of Maine has recently decided a case in reference to the husband's responsibility, where husband and wife were sued for an account against the wife only, she being in the millinery business. The question of fact was left to a jury, but the jury were instructed that the goods having been charged to the wife she alone was prima facie liable, although the charge was open to explanation. If the hurband had a joint interest in the business-not merely an interest as husband-if he was actually a partner, or so held himself out, then he was liable, but otherwise not. The jury found a verdict that the husband was not responsible for the bill, and this

One-fourth of the working people of Newark, New Jersey, are said by the New York Herald to be idle. Three thousand seamstresses are out of employment there. In Philadelphia thirty-two thousand workmen, it is estimated, have been discharged. All the iron works in the country are curtailing their number of laborers; nearly all the cotton and woolen mills are doing the same. The railroads are using the smallest force with which they can operate. From one end of the country to the other our seeming prosperity has suffered a sudden and disastrous collapse-a sudden wilting. This may not be felt long by the richer classes, but to the poor it means a lack of work, money and daily bread—a foreboding present and a hard winter to face :

the Court affirmed.

Application will be made to the Legislature at the approaching session, to amend the charter of the NORTH CAROLINA AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.

THE Richmond Enquirer, in a paragraph editorially, says "there was an election in Virginia on Tuesday." We suppose Hughes and party have discovered this fact.

THE telegraph has announced the death of the venerable Bishop EARLY, of the Methodist Church, at Lynchburg, Va., on Wednesday, at the advanced age of 87 years. We will only say that no man in the Bishopric of the Methodist Church of the country stood higher as a man or a Christian, and his loss will be keenly and deeply felt by his Church.

THE whole country will rejoice with the citizens of Memphis in the justice to parties who have suits in rapid disappearance of the terrible scourge that has swept so many of the inhabitants into their graves and made the city almost a wilderness. The malady has spent its force, under the advance of cold weather, no new cases are reported, and but few deaths occurring in the hospitals, and those who have been refuging are now returning to their homes. Soon will the city again wear a business aspect. but the sad effects of the scourge cannot be so soon obliterated, for, aside from the sad hearts and bereaved families that have been called upon to mourn the loss of loved ones, the suffering of the poorer classes this winter must of necessity be intensethey have nothing provided for the winter, and this, added to the stringency of the money market and the paralized condition of trade gener- to what, in our opinion, is the most ally, will render their suffering more thorough.

THE Virginia Conservative press are jubilant over the recent victory obtained in that State over Republicanism. Kemper's majority will largely exceed that of WALKER in 1869. Says the Norfolk Virginian: So far as evil may ever be held as destroyed, Radicalism here is dead. From Tidewater and Valley, from mountain and sea, from our cities, no less than from the remotest districts of the country, comes up the same unanimous protest against the policy and party of Hughes and Va. General HARDIE was a Brevet Ramsdell, the "native" and the non- Lieut. Colonel in the U. S. Army at native' leaders of African against Caucasian, of tyranny against freemen. It is too early yet to make more than an appropriate estimate of the majority which has declared for liberty and right against greed and corruption and ignorance; but it is safe to say that the Walker majority is surpassed by many thousand. In 1869 Virginia had cause enough to fear and detest the party led by Wells, and at the polls her people showed that fear and hate. But from 1869 to 1873 four years of such oppression, misrule, and ruin in the com-monwealth south of us were exhibited before us as might well make the most ignorne man among us acquainted with his danger, and as might stir the most slothful to repel it. The result was seen on Tuesday, the 4th November, and Robert W. Hughes may enjoy the pleasure of knowing that, "native" as he is, he and his following are more odious to Virginia than even was Wells and the jailbird crew that kept him company.

The Norfolk Virginian and Capt. Ham. Chamberlaine.

The Norfolk Virginian of Thursday contains the saluatory of Captain JNO. HAMPDEN CHAMBERLAINE as Editor of that paper, to fill the place so long and ably occupied by JAMES BARRON HOPE, Esq., now of the Landmark, Capt. CHAMBERLAINE.as Editor of the Petersburg Index, won for himself a most enviable name, his trenchant pen being second to none other in Virginia. We are pleased to again see him in harness, and congratulate the proprietors of the Virginian upon the fortunate selection they have made. Says he in the conclusion of his salutatory:

"The history of the Virginian is so well known that its past may be left to indicate its future course. That the principles which have inspired it under the able hand now withdrawn from its guidance will never be abandoned, I can safely promisehow ably they shall be defended must be left to time and friendly judgments to determine. To be the spokesman, the champion and, in some small measure, the guide of friends and countrymen, is a proud though a heavy task. I accept it gladly and without fear; because I rely upon myself to work for and to intend the right, and upon my friends to pardon all short-comings and mistakes which shall be not intentional.

Special Courts.

Senator ALLEN, of Duplin county, has recently written a very excellent letter to Mr. YATES, editor of the Charlotte Democrat, in reply to certain strictures of that paper upon the present General Assembly. With the major portion of Col. ALLEN'S letter we most heartily concur, but we are compelled to enter our dissent to his recommendation that "special courts" for the trial of criminal offenses should be established in the larger counties of the State as a remedy for the present inability of the Superior Courts in those counties to dispose of the business accumulating upon their dockets. We do not object to "special courts" as they should be constituted, but we can see no necessity for or good that can be accomplished by such "special courts" as the Legislature is now permitted by law to establish.

Now it is very true that the General Assembly possesses the power to organize "special courts" with criminal jurisdiction, in certain localities, second to none other engaged in the but by the permission of the Consti-Confederate cause. tution, their jurisdiction is limited to the trial of misdemeanors, or in other words is but a trifle removed from the jurisdiction of a Justice's Court. The case of the State vs. WALKER, not long since decided by the Supreme Court, which involved the question of the jurisdiction of Judge CANT-

Wilmington, is authority to this effect.

The establishment of such courts

as these will not effectually remedy the grievance of which we all unite in complaining. In the more populous counties of the State,

such as New Hanover, Mecklenburg,

Wake and some others, the accumulation of criminal business upon the dockets is so great that suitors upon the civil dockets are postponed from cases. In the county of Wake, we tained by an amendment to the Con-attention of the law-makers of the State to the admitted grievance, and a matter into which politics does not enter, and it seems to us that an

One of the things you read of recently occurred in Wilmington, Del. A man was detected hurrying away from a butcher's stall with a steak which he had stolen under his coat. A policeman followed him to his home, and peeping through the window, saw him give the stake to his children, who devoured it raw. Upon report of this being made to the butcher, his bosom so glowed with benevolent sympathy, that instead of prosecuting, he sent the starving family a large basket of meat and a little cash to buy wood to cook it.

The Assassin at Work in Norfolk, Va - A Well Known Gentleman is

A serious difficulty occurred in Norfolk, Va., on l'uesday night, which may result in the death of Mr. Robert O. Epes, a merchant and well known gentleman of that city. The Virginian of Thursday gives the following particulars of the affair:

"The parties to the affair were Mr. Robert O. Epes, a well known gentlemen of this city, and a man by the name of Joseph Barnes, who, for some unknown cause, took upon himself the role of the assassin, and deli-berately and fiendishly attempted to take the life of his victim. Both of the parties, as we learn, were in the procession which went around, on Tuesday evening to serenade the dif-ferent candidates elect. Near the residence of Major W. E. Foster, on Bermuda street, Mr. Epes received the first intimation that Barnes intended to harm him. This occurred between 9 and 10 o'clock. About an hour later the parties had some words at the residence of a gentleman in the West End, but no blows were passed.
Again, a short time afterwards, on Freemason street, near the residence of Major C. B. Duffield, the difficulty instances of persons returning to this was renewed. Barnes repeating some very offensive language which he had used several times during the evening, when Mr. Epes slapped him in the face. Barnes immediately drew a butcher or sailor's sheath-knife, which he had concealed upon his person, and stabbed Mr. Epes twice, once in the left side, under the arm, and once in the abdomen, both very deep and dangerous wounds. As soon as the stabbing was inflicted, Barnes threw the knife into the yard of Major Duffield, and drew a shoemaker's hammer, which he also had concealed. This was wrenched from him, when he made his escape. Mr. Epes was attended within a few minutes by Dr. Nash, who lived in the vicinity of the affray, after which he was placed upon a shutter and carried to his room in the Atlantic Hotel, weere his wounds were dressed by Drs. Nash, Galt and Harris.

"Two or three hours after the cutting, Barnes was arrested in a house on Cove street, on a warrant issued by Justice John A. Rosson.

"Yesterday morning he was partially examined before His Honor Mayor Ludlow, when several witnesses were heard. Their evidence all showed plainly that Barnes was the guilty party, but was very meagre, by far the most important witnesses not having yet been called, and the substance is given in the narrative above. The Mayor, after hearing it, committed Barnes to jail to await the result of Mr. Epes' wounds, refusing bail, as he was in duty bound to do.

"Of this affair, we have no hesitation in saying that it was a brutal, cowardly, maliciously premeditated attack of an armed ruffian upon an unarmed man. It is susceptible of proof that Barnes upon several occasions during the day threatened to cut Mr. Epes to pieces that night, and his arming himself with deadly and unulor Evans, charged with mail robbery | terwards carried out. Of his past life atrocious attempt at assassination being the crime for which he must be tried and punished.

"We are much pleased to state that Mr. Epes' condition last night was considered more favorable, and at a late hour he was resting quietly. His physicians express a good deal of hope for his recovery."

The inventor of the "FRANKLIN STEAM WASHER" was owner of the right to manufacture the "Improved" woman's Friend in certain territory. While manufacturing these machines, and watching attentively their action and the manner in which they operated, and the results, he discovered certain prominent defects therein. He spent ten months in the study of the subject of finding remedies for these defects. He has at last succeeded—and as the result of his investigation and study, he offers to the public the "FRANKLIN STEAM WASHER," which is by far the best Washing Machine ever patented. We claim as an evidence of its merit that "LETTERS PATENT" were granted over all others.

It will wash anything from a Lace Collar to a Bed Blanket. It will cleanse the clothing without tearing and more thoroughly than can possibly be done by hand labor or the use of the rubbing board. With one-fourth of the labor four times as much can be done in the same length of time as can be done by hand. We could publish columns of certificates of its worth from those who have used it, but for the present we prefer the WASHER to speak for itself. We give a few below: Messrs, BARROW & PLEASANIS, Louisburg, September 27th, 1873.

Messrs, BARROW & PLEASANTS,

GENTLEMEN:—Mrs. Davis has tried the "FRANKLIN STEAM WASHER" and instructs me to say, in reply to your enquiry, that she is well pleased with it, and believes it to be all that you claim for it as a labor saving Machine. It does its work well and diminishes, by more than half, the labor of washing. She cheerfully recommends it Joseph J. Davis. Messrs, BARROW & PLEASANTS, Louisburg, September 10th, 1873.

GENTL' MEN: —Before purchasing your Steam Washer, I paid four dollars per month for our family washing; now without any additional help, I have the washing done at home and pay fifty cents a week to have the troning done. In this way I save $2 per month, and my lothes are much whiter, and I am satisfied, will last much longer than when washed by rubbing or the use of a board. It is all that you recommend it to be.

Very respectfully,

Mrs. C. M. Cooke.

Messrs, BARROW & PLEASANTS. LOUISBURG, September 11th, 1873. GENTLEMEN:—I am using your Steam Washer, and it proves a success and I take pleasure in recommending it to the public, and testify to its being all that you represent it to be.

Messrs, BARROW & PLEASANTS, LOUISBURG, August 4th, 1873. Messrs. BARROW & PLEASANTS,

GENTLEMEN:—I take pleasure in recommending your "Steam Washer." I acknowledge myself to have been increations with regard to yours, after having tested several others that had been as highly recommended to me; but the inconvenience to a large family, of not being able to get a good washer, regularly, induced me to give yours a trial. I am gratified to pronounce it a perfect success. I used it according to directions, and did two week's washing in two hours, nor did I give the first RUB. Whiter or more nicely washed clothes, I have never had. It only needs a trial to convince.

Respectfully,

Mrs. W. H. FURMAN.

Messrs. BARROW & PLEASANTS, LOUISBURG, July 12th, 1873. Messrs. BARROW & PLEASANTS,

COOL PROCEEDINGS ON THE PART of a Kansas Matron.—A quiet lit-be willage in Kansas known as Bazaar township, was recently thrown into a terrible commotion by the announcement that the wife of the only clergyman in that place had departed for Texas with her husband's hired man. The husband became aware that all was not right, and a few months ago paid off and dis-missed the man who was the cause of his domestic unhappiness. He departed, but only to a place near by, where he procured a new wagon. Then he bought a horse of his former employer, and with another horse, procured somewhere else, he rigged out an outfit for Texas, as he said. When he was ready, the lady coolly informed her husband that she loved George better than himself or children, and that she was going with him. The husband remonstrated and told her that she would be most miserable. But nothing could induce her to be separated from George, She thrust away her little children, who clung about her neck, and her husband, with a heavy heart, divided his household goods with her, giving her and her lover half of such things as they could carry with them. He also told her that she could take some books from his library if she choose. She took only her Bible and hymn The husband expressed the book. hope that she might read her Bible and profit thereby. As soon as it became dark the cloping pair started off, previously requesting the deserted husband, however, to pray that they might have a prosperous jour-

WIVES ENOUGH .- An incident of crossing the plains in the early days was told by clever lady at the breakfast table one morning in 'Frisco. A Dutchman and his wife had travelled West and arrived at Salt Lake, where they halted for a few weeks. The Mormons got around the old Dutchman and coaxed him to join their ranks. After retiring one night in their canvas-covered wagon bed; the good Dutchman broke the matter to his better half, hinting to her that the Mormons told him he had better 'stay, settle among dem, and dake some more vives." " How many vives you tinks you vants?" asked Kathrina. The Dutchman thought fife more vould make a half dozen alreaty," whereupon the old wife got down her bodice, and slipped from it what the Dutchman called the "prestboard, vich vas made from Visconsin hickory, and vas very tough," and she laid the hickory fierce and fast on the old man, who shuffled out of the wagon and fell in a ditch. The old man got up, said his "stomach it vas cold, but his back it vas varm." His wife cried out: "How many vives you tinks you vants now, ould fool ?" But the Dutchman felt and expressed that one was enough.
